The Dextra advantage

Comprehensive coverage

We ensure you get what you are legally entitled to. With Dextra coverages and services, you are extensively protected in legal disputes. We offer unique protection in areas including labor law, data protection, intellectual property, association law, tax law, and contract law.

No cost risk

Legal disputes aren't just stressful and time-consuming—they can be costly. In case of a conflict, Dextra covers attorney, court, and legal fees up to CHF 1'300'000. Our yearly premium costs about the same as a single hour of a lawyer's time. If external legal counsel is required, you have the right to choose your own lawyer.

Legal advice by phone included

With JUSupport, you receive free and expert guidance on any legal issue, providing you with peace of mind before a dispute even starts.

Legal expertise

We are specialized in legal protection, ensuring you receive rapid help from experienced legal professionals. A team of around 80 in-house legal experts and lawyers is dedicated to defending your rights.

Fairly insured

We only offer 1-year contracts that can be cancelled until the last working day. Dextra has no deductibles, minimum, or maximum dispute values and waives any reduction in benefits in cases of gross negligence. Furthermore, Dextra is independent and thus avoids conflicts of interest.
