

VIAC Legal Protection by Dextra

Legal protection for private individuals

With VIAC legal protection insurance, you are on the safe side. It advises you on legal issues and protects you from the financial risks of a legal dispute.

VIAC in cooperation with Dextra offers its customers a selection of attractive legal protection solutions. The offer includes private legal protection (Private) and/or traffic legal protection (Move). Owners or landlords of real estate can supplement Private with the module real estate legal protection (Immo). For people who would like to additionally protect themselves against legal risks in special areas such as data protection, inheritance-, family-, school- or tax law etc., Private can be extended by the module Complete.

Selectable basic modules:

✓ Private

Private protects you from the most common legal risks in everyday life (employment-, tenancy-, patient-, insurance-, contract law etc.).

✓ Move

Move protects you from the most common risks in road traffic (revocation of licence, criminal-, insurance-, contract law, etc.).

Optional add-on modules:

+ Immo

The module Immo protects property owners or landlords from legal risks related to building or living (contracts for work, agency contracts, public construction- and planning law etc.).

+ Complete

The module Complete additionally protects against legal risks in specific legal areas (data protection, internet, inheritance-, family-, school-, tax law etc.).
